DEANE & CO. HEARD FROM

NOT ABLE TO PAY THEIR SHARE OF THIRD STREET PAVING
THIS YEAR.

DELAY A YEAR, CONSIDER IT FAVORABLY

If Work Is Done This Year, Deane &
Co. Ask City to Pay for It and Let the Company Reimburse the Municipality.

Mayor J. L. Babcock Sunday received a letter from Edward M. Deane & Co., of Grand Rapids, Mich., owners of the Sedalia Light & Traction company, stating that the corporation was not in a financial condition to pay for paving between its tracks on Third street from Osage to Park avenue this year, but if the Sedalia city council would postpone the paving until next year Deane & Co. would consider the matter favorably.

The letter further stated that if the city would pay for the entire paving on Third street this year Deane & Co. would repay the city the company's prorata in one, two and three-year payments.

Following the receipt of the letter, Mayor Babcock will today attach his veto to the ordinance adopted at the last meeting of council letting the contract for furnishing rights to Sedalia to the Sedalia Light & Traction company.

The ordinance will stand with the mayor's veto until the meeting of council on Monday night, August 16, and if between now and that date no settlement is reached with the Light & Traction company relative to having Third street paved, the council will sustain the mayor's veto and refuse to adopt the ordinance over said veto.

Immediately afterwards City Attorney W. W. Blain will begin counter proceedings to forfeit the franchise of the Light & Traction company for fighting the city and operating its street cars over the streets.

The bride couple left at once for Holden to go to housekeeping.

SITUATION IS UNCHANGED

Moor Stronghold Is Being Bombarded
By Spanish Artillery.

Madrid, Aug. 2.—The situation at Melilla remains unchanged. There are still strong bodies of Moors hiding in the gorges of Mount Guruga, the Moorish stronghold, which is being constantly bombarded by Spanish artillery. The British cruiser Lancaster and Suffolk, together with four torpedo boat destroyers have sailed for Moroccan waters.

PJ RTER BRUTALLY BEATEN

Assault Is Laid at the Door of Notorious Lee Gang.

Peter Abbott, a train porter for the M. K. & T., residing in this city, is alleged to have been brutally assaulted by the notorious Lee gang on the company platform at Boonville at 9:30 o'clock last night, being painfully, although not seriously, injured.

Abbott was running with Conductor George Ferrell to St. Louis on train No. 4. Passengers are not permitted to enter M. K. & T. trains there unless they first exhibit their transportation.

Abbott was watching the train, when several members of the gang approached. They had no tickets and Abbott refused to let them aboard. The assault ensued.

J. W. Evans, head of the secret service department of the M. K. & T., went to Boonville this morning to investigate the assault and make arrests.

The Lee gang reside at New Franklin. The members "tank up" on Boonville whisky and the results are a drunken brawl invariably.

REULBACH GOING SOME

BIG FELLOW WHO PITCHED FOR SEDALIA UNDER NAME,
"BOB LAWSON."

SEEDLESS BLACKBERRY JOE ROE'S FIND

Now the Leading Pitcher of Chicago
Cubs, and Has Won the Last
11 Games in Which He Occupied the Box.

The season of 1909 has furnished some surprises, but none of these go much above that of Ed Reulbach, who several years ago was picked up in St. Louis by Jos. B. Roe and brought to Sedalia, where he pitched for the Sedalia club in the Missouri Valley league, under the name of "Bob Lawson."

For several seasons the big Cub heaver has had "wildness" for his middle name. But this year you don't hear it, that is not recently. Early in the spring Reulbach was as wild and had as much speed as ever, and for a time it looked as though he might drop from his world's championship berth.

Now everything has changed. Ed Reulbach wild? There's not a fan that can think of the finger being in such a position. Big Ed has settled, and every one is having trouble winning when he is on the scene.

In the last eleven games in which Reulbach has worked he has come out victor, and it is his work that has done much to hold the Cubs next to the Pirates.

His last win was Saturday, when he defeated Philadelphia, scoring a shut-out, allowing only six runs and not giving a base on balls.

Ed Reulbach has control. He always had everything else, and if he keeps going there is no telling how high a notch in the baseball hall of fame this finger may occupy. Certain it is that his reversal has helped the Cubs mightily.

Sedalia fans are watching "Big Ed" with pride.

COUNTY COURT IN SESSION

The judges of the Pettis county court are in regular session today. Coroner Morley's bills, amounting in the aggregate to $194.60 for inquest on the bodies of John Wilkerson and Mrs. Janie Scott and for viewing the body of T. J. McMurdo, were allowed.

The J. C. Beaman road, in the southern part of Heath's Creek township, was allowed.

The petition of J. J. Gray et al for the opening of a road in Elk Fork township was favorably acted upon. It was ordered that two concrete culverts be constructed in Section 29 in Dresden township.

PLENTY OF BACK BONE

DEATH OF JUDGE AYRES

THE FINAL SUMMONS CAME AT FIVE O'CLOCK ON SUNDAY MORNING.

BORN AND REARED IN PETTIS COUNTY

Served in the Confederate Army—
For the Past Fifteen Years He Had Lived in Sedalia—The Burial This Afternoon.

Judge Manlius A. Ayres died at Maywood hospital at 5 o'clock Sunday morning, following a lingering illness of four months, aged 61 years. Death was attributed to a general breakdown of the nervous system.

Judge Ayres was born and reared in Pettis county. He had served one term as a peace justice of Sedalia township and previously had been elected county assessor to fill an unexpired term.

His father, S. M. Ayres, died in 1849. His mother expired a little over a year ago. Judge Ayres' birthplace was twelve miles north of Sedalia, and at the age of 14 years he enlisted in the Confederate army.

He remained in the service until the close of the war, when he entered Bethel college at Russellville, Ky., completing a two years' course.

Immediately after his graduation he returned to Pettis county, residing on the family homestead, north of town. Fifteen years ago he gave up farm life and moved to Sedalia, where since he has followed the profession of a lawyer.

On February 14, 1871, Judge Ayres was united in wedlock to Miss Virginia Dorsey, of Georgetown. Six children blessed the union, five of whom survive, as follows: Mrs. C. L. Allen, Harrisonville, Mo.; Misses Nellie and Josephine, both of Sedalia; S. M. Ayres, of Kansas City, and S. T. Ayres, of Windsor.

More than four months ago Judge Ayres was taken ill with a cold. His condition grew worse daily, and during the past fortnight it became so alarming that death would not have occasioned surprise at any time.

Judge Ayres was a member of the Southern Methodist church, but held membership in no lodge or society. His acts of kindness were numerous, and his obituary will be perused by every acquaintance with sorrow.

The Rev. J. F. Caskey, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, conducted funeral services at that church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, and burial was made in Crown Hill cemetery.

The following gentlemen served as pall-bearers: John Waddell, W. S. Baker, D. T. Hartshorn, W. E. Poinexter, Henry Knopff and John A. Collins.

Queen Walnut Made Good.

Queen Walnut, purchased at the W. B. Taylor blooded horse sale at the state fair grounds last spring by a New Orleans gentleman for $725, was entered in the matinee races in the Crescent City the past week and captured the blue ribbon and purse with comparative ease. This is the news Charles McEniry received from the owner of Queen Walnut Sunday.

Pettis County Gets $15,735.34.

County Clerk M. L. Imhoff has received notice that Pettis county's share of the state school money for 1909 is $15,735.34, and a requisition will be made on the state auditor for that amount.

Victim Killed a Farmer Last June—
Had Just Been Returned to City
From Kansas City for Trial
—Sheriff Was Fooled.

Platte City, Mo., Aug. 2.—George Johnson, white, who murdered John W. Moore, a farmer, near here June 29, was lynched here early this morning.

Feeling ran so high at the time of the killing that Johnson was taken to Kansas City for safe keeping. His trial was to have begun today and he was returned to Platte City Sunday afternoon.

About 2 o'clock this morning two men took a third man to the jail, representing him to be a prisoner. When the sheriff opened the jail door the three overpowered him and fifty other men soon appeared and battered down the door of Johnson's cell.

He was taken to a tree opposite the jail and strung up, where his body hung until 6:30 this morning, when it was cut down.

Burial of Mrs. Humphrey.

The body of Mrs. Almeda K. Humphrey, of Kansas City, daughter of the late Dr. Willis P. King, who died at Kansas City last Friday afternoon, will arrive here at 4:25 o'clock this afternoon, and will be taken directly to Crown Hill cemetery, where burial will be made in the family lot. The services will be private.

J. W. MILES LATE THIS AFTER NOON FILED SUIT AGAINST
E. C. WHITE.

UNNECESSARY SUITS AGAINST PLAINTIFFS

Two Years After Bill Was Paid, Says
Miles, He Was Sued By White
—After Receipt Was Shown
Another Suit Started.

J. W. Miles, of this city, late this afternoon filed suit, through his attorney, Holme's Hall, against E. C. White for $2,000, alleging that White had brought suit against him in the justice court of J. B. Hughes at Georgetown for a grocery bill two years after the bill had been paid; that he called upon White and produced a receipt for the bill; that afterwards another suit was brought in the same court; that again the receipt was shown, and that defendant has said that he intends filing still another suit against the plaintiff. The complaint reads as follows:

In the Circuit Court of Pettis County, Missouri, October Term, 1903.
J. W. Miles Plaintiff
vs.
E. C. White Defendant

Plaintiff for his cause of action states that he now is, and at all times hereinafter mentioned was a resident of Sedalia township, Pettis county, Missouri; that on the 10th day of May, 1905, he contracted a bill for groceries which he purchased from one Grant Butcher in the sum of six dollars and seventy-five cents; that he paid said bill on the 20th day of September, 1905, and took a receipt therefor.

Plaintiff further states that defendant now is, and at all times hereinafter mentioned, was a resident of Sedalia township, Pettis county, Missouri, and was and now is engaged in the practice of law and in the collection business in the City of Sedalia, in said township, county and state.

Plaintiff further states that on or about the 14th day of January, 1908, and over two years after the grocery bill had been paid, defendant, without any demand for payment being made upon plaintiff, wrongfully and maliciously brought suit against plaintiff for said sum of six dollars and seventy cents for the said account which had already been paid by plaintiff; that plaintiff was duly served with process and summoned to appear before J. B. Hughes, a justice of the peace in Cedar township, an adjoining township to Sedalia township; that plaintiff saw defendant the following day and produced vouchers for the truth of the statement, and furnishes the names of witnesses.

Plaintiff further states that he immediately saw the aforesaid Grant Butcher and informed him of defendant's bringing suit, and that said Butcher also saw the defendant and told him that plaintiff had paid said account and for the defendant to dismiss said suit, and that he (Butcher) had not ordered said suit to be brought, but whether said suit was ever dismissed or not plaintiff is unable to state.

Plaintiff further states that defendant again wrongfully and maliciously sued plaintiff on the same account before the aforesaid J. B. Hughes, justice of the peace as aforesaid, and plaintiff was duly summoned to appear in said court; that he again showed defendant his receipt, and that he again saw Grant Butcher, and Butcher telephoned defendant and asked why he wanted to keep tormenting plaintiff, as plaintiff did not

HANS WAGNER INJURED

"STITCH" IN ONE OF HEART
MUSCLES SLIDING INTO HOME PLATE.

HE HAD TO QUIT THE GAME LAST FRIDAY

Liable to Recur at Any Resumption of Violent Exercise, Physicians Say
—Greatest Player the Game
Has Ever Known.

Readers of the Democrat-Sentinel will peruse with regret the following dispatch from Pittsburg to the St. Louis Star of Sunday morning, telling of an injury to the greatest player the world has ever known:

That Hans Wagner, the greatest of living ball players, has not only been injured for the rest of the season, but he will never be able to play baseball again, is the discouraging news handed out to the fans of Pittsburg tonight.

Wagner, who limped from the game in the middle of the fourth inning yesterday after two strikes had been called on him, did not appear in the game today nor will he appear for some time, at least, according to his doctors, though Wagner hopes to be able to be in the line-up on Tuesday.

Wagner's injury appears to be a "stitch" in one of the heart muscles incurred on last Thursday, when in the game with Cincinnati he hurt himself sliding to the home plate. At that time he complained of the pain in the region of his heart and went into the game yesterday against the advice of the club physician and his own physician.

The break which the physicians had feared came in the middle of the fourth inning when the big fellow made his second vicious swing at the ball. His physician says that this is liable to recur on any violent exercise and advises that he retire from the game at once and for all time. The gloom in Pittsburg tonight can be cut in chunks.

Wagner has declared that he will go to Louisville Monday to help bury his discoverer—Harry Pulliam—if it is the last act of his own baseball career.

CAR REPAIRER IS DEAD

Body of William F. Green Is to Be Taken to Warsaw.

William F. Green, an M. K. & T. car repairer, and son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Green, died of typhoid fever at his home, 718 East Sixteenth street, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, following a six weeks' illness.

He was 21 years old and held membership in the National Annuity society. The Rev. F. Y. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, conducted the funeral services at the family residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon, and the body will be taken to Warsaw overland tomorrow morning, where burial will be made.

The Fish Wore a Comb.

W. H. Varner, of Syracuse, has proven to be the swiftest fish catcher in this part of the state. One day last week, while fishing in the La mine river, he landed a ten-pound carp, which was adorned with a ladies' hair comb in its side. He has receipt showing that he had paid said bill.

Plaintiff further states that he im-

GREAT SERMONS SUNDAY

TWO THAT WERE HEARD AT THE FIRST METHODIST EPIS-COPAL CHURCH.

PREACHED BY REV. GRANT A. ROBBINS

"The Nightmare of Debt" Is Pictured in All of Its Hidingness in Language Not to Be Misunderstood.

Did you hear the two splendid sermons at the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday? This is the question that is being asked on all sides by those who were there.

The pastor, Rev. Grant A. Robbins, held an appreciative audience during the full time for the discourses. His morning text was from Deut. 32—"As an eagle stirreth up her nest."

In his addresses he likened people in their desire to be protected, clothed, fed, sheltered and cared for to the eaglets, who selfishly take all these sacrifices until the mother eagle must scatter and destroy the nest. In substance, his address contained the following:

Some of the most precious and rich of God's creations cannot be bought with money, the air, the glorious sunset, the landscape, the majesty of the storm, and beside these, the greatest of riches, health and character.

There are three things to be considered in regard to a young man and his money.

First, Getting of the money. If quickly gotten, it is very dangerous, for it may wreck the physical body, and take away ambition; better than inherited money are a good physical constitution, bright intellect and spotless name.

Second, The use to which the money is put. Money is but a medium of exchange, and nearly all that the eye beholds is a lure to tempt the young man to part with his money, but the mind should be so trained that the desire should not be to want everything that can be purchased, but what will do one good.

Third, The nightmare of debt. Have you thought that debt is the mortgaging of your tomorrows, and that the borrower becomes servant to the lender? Beware of going beyond your means. An honest occupation, employing both body and mind, usually creates an appreciation of the value of money, and it is thus judiciously used when obtained. Beware of the tinsel of the present that lures for the time, but satisfieth not in the end.

THE CUBS WON GAME SUNDAY

But Will Not Accept Challenge of the Clover Leaf.

The Sedalia Cubs defeated the New Franklin team Sunday afternoon by the score of 7 to 0. The score by innings:

New Franklin 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 3
Cubs 7 10 2
Batteries—Cook, McClish and Bain; McGurran and Wilkerson. Umpires—King and Poindexter.

The manager of the Clover Leaf baseball team Sunday issued a challenge to the Cubs for a game to be played in the near future, but the Cubs declined to accept.

The game was to have been played for the entire gate receipts and $20 side money, but for some reason the management of the Cubs refused to cross bats with the other team.

NINE YEARS WITH THE BELL

District Manager J. H. Lincoln Is Celebrating Today.

J. H. Lincoln, more familiarly known as "Father" Lincoln, district manager for the Bell Telephone company, is today unceremoniously celebrating the ninth anniversary of his adventure into the telephone business in Sedalia.

"Any man that holds one position that long ought to be fired," he remarked, while speaking of the celebration to a number of friends today.

Mr. Lincoln is a practical telephone man in all that the term implies. He started in the business at the foot of the ladder, and step by step has advanced until at present he is recognized by the Bell management as one of the most experienced men in the employ of the corporation.

The Weather Forecast.
Generally fair weather tonight and Tuesday.

WHO IS INSANE AND WHO IS NOT?

This insanity business is confusing. It befores the mind as much as metaphysics or a Pennsylvania contract.

According to the standards set by the alienists, almost any sane man might be conclusively proven to be insane. Contrarily, there are species of dormant or intermittent insanity which may be positively disproved. The experts say Thaw is a paranoiac and various other "a-c's," which in understandable English means that there is hibernating somewhere in his anatomy the germs of a brainstorm. But what is a brainstorm? Is a man thus afflicted when he flies into a rage and beats his wife or his horse? Are there brainstorms in the hysteria commonly witnessed at a ball game? Does the boy who ties up the pot cat by its tail experience a mental storm? Did Senator Stone not undergo a brainstorm when his uncontrollable temper caused him to slap a negro waiter in the face? And how about the furious fans who mobbed an umpire at a ball game the other day—wasn't there a maniacal hurricane of some sort within their craniums?

Thaw is just now trying to prove himself sane. He has finished a grueling duel with District Attorney Jerome, in which his intellect and memory and control proved a worthy match for the skilled brain which sought to throw him down. But whatever his attitude on the stand, it is established in the opinion of the state evidence of insanity.

If he had, as the majority of normally irritable human beings would do in this age of nervous tension, resented the antagonist's stinging sallies, the "noodle" professionals back of Jerome would have shouted "brainstorm." If, on the other hand, the witness maintained his equilibrium through the trying ordeal of two days of merciless questioning that would tax the endurance and patience of the strongest men, it would be a cunning manifestation of a disordered mind. Of course, this is what Thaw did; that is, it was what he set out to do.

because it seemed to him and his lawyers the best survival of the test. No matter, however, what he did or said on the stand, it would be interpreted against him by the alienists hired by the state to keep him in an asylum. Nervousness, self-possession, lucidity, recitment, meekness, self-assurance, reserve, intellectuality, stupidity, any and all would be invested with sinister meaning by these hair-splitting authorities on cracked heads.

As a matter of plain, unvarnished fact, the public has little respect for or confidence in these so-called alienists. It is money that forms their opinions, and fortunately for the science, there is always ample leeway for taking any position the price calls for.

We do not know whether Thaw ought to be liberated or not. There is out of all the conflicting evidence adduced plenty of argument for lay views on either side. There is not, however, any indication of insanity, such as would be taken cognizance of by an ordinary lunacy commission or court. The strongest theory of the state is that Thaw, if released, might suffer another brainstorm and kill somebody else.

Well, there are thousands of others in the same condition roaming about at will and many of them are regarded today as the strongest persons mentally in the communities where they live. Some of them will "explode," possibly do "explosive" quite frequently, and in a relatively few of the explosions there will be some casualties.

But nobody thinks of sorting out these human firecrackers and isolating them under restraint. The law does not reach this extreme of protecting society. A dangerous man may be put under bond for keeping the peace, but broadly speaking he can be deprived of his liberty for two things only—medical insanity and crime.

Thaw was found not guilty of murder and can not be imprisoned for the crime. If the jury erred in pronouncing him insane it is not his fault, and unless the state can establish his insanity clearly and without doubt he will regain his freedom.

JUST TRY THIS METHOD.

Not a little of the discomfort of the hot weather is due to mental attitude. You start out early in the morning, when the air is cool and pleasant, by wondering if it will be a hot day. A few minutes of this and you feel certain it will be a hot day. You wish a few times that it would rain or snow about noon and cool the air. But it doesn't snow, it probably won't rain, and you are more certain it will be a scorching hot day—and lo and behold, it's a hot day already.

You leave the house for work and meet a neighbor who asks "Is it hot enough for you?" and before you reach your work several other persons ask you the same question, and naturally you begin to suffer from the heat.

All day long you keep thinking of the heat and assuring yourself that you are uncomfortable. How could you be otherwise?

Try another plan on these hot days. begin the day by enjoying the fresh morning air. Don't worry about what you will have at noon. Assure yourself that you are comfortable. Remember that no amount of wishing will make summer cold; don't forget that you will have to stand a high temperature and resolve that you will. Then notice how much more comfortable you will be.

If you meet the pest who asks "Is it hot enough for you?" tell him "No." Tell yourself "No."

Your troubles are never as big as we think they are; and no matter what they are they thrive on worry. My, how they do grow! Stop thinking and worrying over them, and how they shrink!

The essence of the great conservation idea which has gained such vogue of late is that the present generation has but a life interest in the soil, the forests, the mines, the water powers, the oil deposits and other natural endowments of the country, and that therefore it has no right to any such wasteful or extravagant use of them as shall deprive future generations of their benefits. Rather, it is our duty to hand down our inheritance, if possible, improved and augmented.

The tariff is about ready. Consumers will please stand up and take their medicine, while the interests will soothe their gullets with just a trifle less syrup.

And if the Moors whip the Spaniards will they take their place by the side of the Japanese?

In all probability the three days' ordeal was quite as trying to Jerome as Thaw.

That First Dollar

Many people do not realize the significance of small beginnings. The first dollar must be saved or there will never be a fortune. Saving money is simply a process of GROWTH. If you form the habit, an independent fortune will grow out of your small beginnings just as sure as the giant tree grows from the sapling. Everybody can save a little at a time. Financial success is simply a matter of sticking to your saving plan—making your character stronger than any temptation to spend. Open a Savings Account TOMORROW—you will never regret it.

THE CZAR VISITED EDWARD

Returning Call Made By the Latter a Year Ago.

London, Aug. 2.—With the imperial yacht Standard surrounded by a cordon of torpedo craft, beyond the lines of what no boat is allowed to pass without official permission, and with the Scotland Yard detectives watching all anarchists and Russian revolutionists as a cat watches a mouse, the visit of Emperor Nicholas to King Edward at Cowes today promises to pass without untoward incident.

In British labor circles there is great indignation that the King should consent to receive "Russia's bloody tyrant," and there is no doubt that today's hobnobbing of royalty will greatly diminish Edward's popularity with the English masses. The visit of the czar returns the King's call on Nicholas at Reval a year ago.

LID'S OFF AT SARATOGA

THE "HORSEY SET" THERE TO DAY FORM ALL QUARTERS OF THE GLOBE.

TWENTY-FOUR DAYS OF THE RACING MEET

Said to Be Sunday Games for Those Desirous of Woeing the Fickle Goddess—The Stakes Are of Goodly Size.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Again the hostilities of this old city are filled to overflowing by the annual onslaught of the horsey set. Again are the faces of assembled thousands turned toward the famous track, where this afternoon the cry of "They're off!" was tumultuously sounded.

Owners and jockeys, touts and tipsters, gentlemen sportsmen and fair society women in stunning costume make up the great crowd that today turned trackward.

There are whispers of loosened lids and sundry games, where the sporty set may woo the fickle goddess of chance, and the very air is pervaded by a spirit of hilarity that intimates that Saratoga has come into its own again.

There is every indication that oral betting will have a great vogue during the twenty-four days of the meet, and the bookmakers are here in force to gather in the golden stream that will flow from the pockets of the multitude.

The stake program provides twenty-three fixtures, all the most popular of the old stakes being renewed, while there are already provided several stakes which closed in 1907, notably the Travers, Alabama and hopeful. The stakes to close include four steeplechases, the North American, the Beverwyck, the Schillcloth and the Saratoga.

The chief of the races on the flat will be the Saratoga handicap of $5,000 at one mile and a quarter for 3-year-olds and upwards.

The more important of the other stakes are the Saratoga cup, $2,500 guaranteed; the Adirondack, $2,500; Champlain, $2,500; merchants' and citizens' handicap, $2,500, and the famous sporting sweepstakes, the Saratoga special, to which the club this season will add a cup of $2,500 value, for a sweepstakes of $250 each, the other conditions being unchanged. The value of the steeplechases will be $1,200 each through the list.

ISSUED LINCOLN CENTS

"INDIAN" RETIRED IN BEHALF OF THOSE BEARING HEAD OF "HONEST ABE."

NEW CENTS IN CIRCULATION TODAY

There Is Now More Than $15,000,000 of the Indian Head Coin Outstanding—The Design Was By Mr. Drenner.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Lo, the poor Red man! Not only has he been driven from his native land, but he has been banished from the coinage of the country, if the demand for the new Lincoln cents, issued today, continues at the present rate.

Distribution of the copper coins bearing the head of "Honest Abe," instead of that of the Indian, which has ornamented them so long, was commenced today, with a brisk demand. The cents were coined at the Philadelphia mint, but the San Francisco mint factory will soon add to the supply.

There is now more than $15,000,000 of the Indian-head coins outstanding, and the retirement will be slow, for the reason that banks will be required to pay transportation charges from the mint, whereas, old pennies in amounts of $20 or more were delivered free by the sub-treasuries.

The Lincoln cent is the idea of ex-President Roosevelt, who commissioned Victor Drenner, of New York, to design the piece. In speaking of his work Mr. Drenner said:

"If you will observe the Lincoln cent carefully you will see that I have made him smiling. I wanted to show the sunshine as well as the goodness of his life. My intention has been to present a situation in which Lincoln might have appeared at his best. Finally, I imagined him as talking to a child. That is the face of the coin."

"A man or woman is natural when speaking to a child. When adults converse they are usually on guard, but in talking to children faces relax and are at their best. I am glad the head will appear on the cent, the piece of money most familiar to the masses. It was Lincoln who said that God must love the common people because he had made so many of them. I had rather have the head on the cent than on the $20 gold piece."

Mr. Drenner came to this country as a poor boy twenty years ago. His father in Russia had taught him engraving, but until he learned enough English to make himself understood he did not know where to look for employment in that trade, and turned match peddler in the streets of this city. His first work in an engraver's shop brought him $1.50 a week. He attended Cooper Institute at night to study clay modelling. When he earned $18 a week he saved most of it until he was able to go to Paris for a course in sculpture. He opened a studio in New York on his return and has since kept himself busy.

The Indian head, in use for more than a generation on the cent, and now to be discontinued, is to share the fate of its predecessor, the eagle, for the reason that it is easily counterfeited. Early in the present year the government decided on a change, but even then it was proposed to place the head of Lincoln on a silver coin, probably the half dollar. Mr. Drenner submitted his designs at Washington. The head was then assigned to the cent.

'NIGHT HAWKS' GET FLAG

Full Blooded Cherokees Get it From President Taft.

Tahlequah, Okla., Aug. 2.—August is the month of the annual stomp dances of the Night Hawks, a secret organization of full-blooded Cherokees, and this month's observance of the rite will be marked by greater pomp than ever, for President Taft has given the Indians the flag that floated over the White House on inauguration day for their permanent gift.

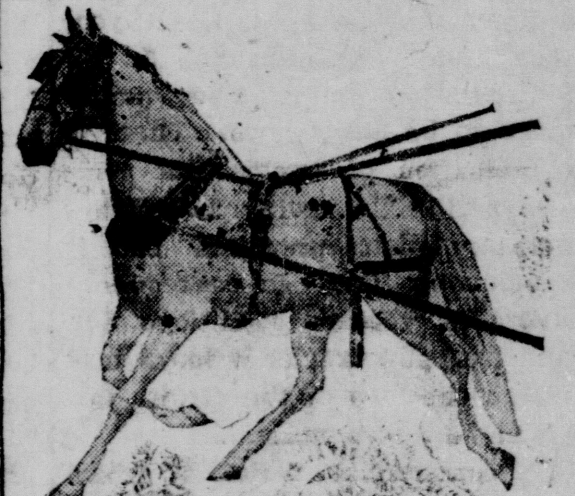

This banner will be hoisted at the stomp dance and the braves will cavort under it while engaged in initiating new members into the secrets of the order.

The gift of the flag to the Indians was made at the request of Representative C. E. Creager, in whose district the Cherokee nation lies.

Many prominent republican clubs had asked the president to give the flag to them as a recognition of their services during the national campaign of last year, and he was in a quandary what to do about it, when Representative Creager suggested to him that the easiest way out of it would be to give the flag to the Cherokees, as there were no other Indians asking for it.

ATTACK WAS COWARDLY

SO WRITES ENGINEER C. W. GOODWIN REGARDING RECENT "CRITICISM."

SAID HE'D "COME AGAIN" AND HERE HE IS

"Sink Hole" in Front of This Property in East Sedalia Resulted in the Gentleman "Taking His Pen in Hand."

Missouri Pacific Hospital, Ward 11, St. Louis, Missouri, August 1.—Solomon of old said at one time words something like these: "Answer thou a fool according to his own wit." I see by the headlines of a certain piece in the columns of your paper of recent date, which now lies before me, what I call a vicious and cowardly attack upon me and my integrity by an unknown (to me) East Sedalian.

mind in the least since that declaration fell from my lips. The card you print is a verbatim ad libitum one of the one I received there, which I would have answered by return mail or personally, if the gentleman posing as my friend, to my face, had what I call "honor" enough to have signed his name—"John Doe," or whatever it is; but I spurned it as "vomit" when I saw it signed "An East Sedalian," and the same as you would turn down any correspondent who would send you any manuscripts written by the writer.

I believe I know this writer as a railroad man, and why he should spurn or ridicule the "valiant railroad men" referred to is a mystery not easily understood. I know I am illiterate—will never be hung for what lit-

Mr. Editor, you seem to be quite well acquainted with me when you said in your issue of the 29th ult., viz: "Mr. Goodwin said he might come again, and likely he will." You can "betheerlife," and you are jolly well right on that. I will come again, and here I am, in my own self-defense, which is the first law of nature.

Somewhere about fourteen months ago I received an anonymous letter, threatening my very life with extinction, for all time, too, and warning me to "stay off the streets of the city and keep my d-d mouth shut."

I had not been accused of any greater crime than defending my wife and my children. I read the letter publicly from a wagon on the Market square in Sedalia in the presence of somewhere near 500 men and women of the city. I then and there paid my compliments (?) to the anonymous friend (?) and cowardly cur, and told him I was ready to die any old time in the defense as I have stated.

Mr. Editor, I have not changed my mind. I know—and, in my opinion, neither will the other fellow—"East Sedalian."

I am glad I don't have to believe what he says. I do not recollect that I spoke "very feelingly" of the sink hole on West Third street. It is my opinion this "East Sedalian" handles the truth in a very reckless manner when he says: "This sink hole in front of my property at 515 South Engineer street is impassable a day at a time after every rain."

I stand ready to condemn wrong at any and all times, in friend or foe. If this is the truth it should, and shall be remedied, provided I am in anyway responsible for the nuisance. What is it? What has happened out there? I have never heard a word of complaint from any one or from any source. Has "East Sedalia" had an earthquake? Has anyone dug a well in my sidewalk, or in the paving in front of my house? I have no recollection of when I last passed this piece of property. As is well known by nearly all who know me at all, I've not been able to work a day since the 6th day of last January; but if this same "East Sedalian" will please write me over his own signature I'll try and remedy any evil existing in front of No. 515 South Engineer avenue, not from his evidence alone, but from a sense of honor, which I claim to possess. As it will only take a "small expenditure of money" to repair this "sink hole," I might possibly raise the amount among a few of the business men and banks I've done business with in the last twenty-five years of my residence in Sedalia, and never beat one of them out of a penny. But, God helping me, I'd never ask this "East Sedalian" for a nickel, for he might possibly need all the nickels he has or can get to buy himself a loaf of bread or another glass of beer, if he drinks.

I love East Sedalia—there it was that I was married; there it was that three children were born to us. Unfortunately for us, one died. The other two I'm proud of, and I don't care who knows it.

I have scores of friends in East Sedalia, and some enemies, too. I will never make fun or speak lightly of the "valiant railroad men" or their families. I'm always ready to defend them in any hour of need. It has just been said by others of these railroad men that "they are the backbone and sinew of Sedalia." (You may leave me out, Mr. Editor, as I toot not my own horn in self-praise), and without them one-half of our big business houses and banks would be apt to close their doors.

Railroad men as a class are good liver and generous givers.

I have "come again," Mr. Editor, and for the last time, too, to answer an anonymous writer, but with your consent I'll answer any reasonable writer who is not afraid or ashamed to sign his name to any question he may ask me through the columns of your esteemed paper.

Or if anyone has any more insulting insinuations to make or personal attacks on me, please notify him (if he asks) of my home address or St. Louis address, and advise them to be men and not mice, and let us carry on any future correspondence through the United States mails, and not tire your readers with any such "cards" as he ("East Sedalian") mailed you and I. If he is the scholar he would have us believe he is, let him begin his epistles to us as "By the way" or "Opportunist," instead of "Appropos." It would be easier to understand him then—for we common readers.

In conclusion, will say here is the nom de plume we hide behind, and we will give you at least initials aplenty, so your readers can guess who we are, and "An East Sedalian" will know. Very respectfully—Charles William Goodwin, 392 West Third street, Sedalia, Mo.; St. Louis, as per Heading.

EVILS OF FEE SYSTEM

Halt Was Called By the Buchanan County Court.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 2.—The fee system has proven to be as pernicious in county offices here as the salary system has been demonstrated to be most unsatisfactory when the incumbent is unfitted or indolent.

Fees for the arrest, conviction and keep of the genus hobo became so startling a short time ago that the county court was compelled to call a halt.

Special officers have been grabbing strangers who had not the price of a railroad ticket and yanking them up before a justice, who saw to it that a sentence was annexed in the county jail.

It is now claimed that the county is paying bills already collected from prisoners or their relatives.

OLD TALE IS RETOLD

Childhood of Harry Thaw as Related By Mother Gone Over.

White Plains, Aug. 2.—At today's session of the habeas corpus proceedings of Harry Thaw, the story of Thaw's childhood and the influences affecting his birth as told by his mother at the murder trial, was read by Jerome. Thaw's mother, who sat behind her son, seemed about to lose control of herself. Her face flushed and she used a palm leaf fan to hide the twitching of her lips.

The testimony presented Thaw as a victim of extreme nervousness from his birth.

SAGE FOR DARKENING THE HAIR

There is nothing new about the idea of using sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our great grandmothers kept their locks soft, dark and glossy by using a "sage tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of sage leaves and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time, tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the brew. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves, and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, containing sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation is sold by all first class druggists for 50c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

OUTLOOK OF APPLE CROP

LOUIS ERB TELLS ABOUT THE CONDITION IN SOUTHWEST MISSOURI.

AVERAGE BETWEEN 25 AND 30 PERCENT

Last Year the Crop Was Utter Failure—Most of the Growers Will Sell at Picking Time in Preference to Storing.

Springfield, Mo., August 2.—Louis Erb, the fruit grower of Cedar Gap, in speaking of the crop this year, says:

"The condition of the apple crop in this district ranges from 25 to 35 per cent of an average crop. Last year the condition was less than 5 per cent; almost nothing. The quality promises to be fairly good. There is little indication of worms, but some scab is noticeable, owing to the low temperature that prevailed shortly after blooming time. In consequence of favorable weather conditions during the past few weeks it looks now as though the size of the fruit this year will be above normal.

"The commercial varieties grown around here are Ben Davis, Gano, Ingram, Smith's Cider, Payne's Keeper, Grimes' Golden, Jonathan, Huntsman, etc. I may state that while the bloom of the Ben Davis was light last spring the other varieties bloomed well and give promise of about a full crop.

"Considering the irregularity of the crop it is difficult to make an approximately correct estimate of how many barrels or boxes will be shipped from this county.

"The apples that may be put in cold storage will likely go to Springfield, Mountain Grove and Memphis, but I am inclined to believe that most of the growers prefer selling at picking time to storing their apples. The leading growers in this immediate vicinity, outside of myself, are G. D. Able, T. C. Love and J. H. Mallory. "It may be of some interest to state that the growers in this section are opposed to the Lafean apple bill, or to any other law that may be suggested for their government in the apple industry. They believe that all rules and regulations for grading and picking apples should be made by the commercial and growers' organizations and that there should be no interference in their privilege of packing No. 1 or 2 apples into closed packages, provided they are offered and sold on their merits. National apple laws may do for Canada, but are not practical for the United States."

The Spiritual Line.

A good story is told of a very seate doctor of divinity. When returning by train from a church congress, a fellow passenger undertook to draw him into conversation, and so far succeeded that the reverend gentleman asked him to what profession he happened to belong.

"Oh," said the layman, cheerfully, "I'm in the cotton line."

"Oh, indeed?" replied the clergyman, unabashedly; "there is a good deal of business going on in that branch just now, I understand."

"First class," said the layman, with a cunning smile. "And may I ask what is your line?"

"I," said the clergyman, patronizingly, "with the nearest approach to a joke he was ever known to perpetrate, 'I'm in the spiritual line.'"

"Blest if I didn't think so," exclaimed his companion, knowingly; and putting one hand on the doctor's knee, he leaned forward eagerly and added, with an indescribable wink, "but I say, what a price you have got gin up to?"—Lindon Tit-Bits.

A Sign of the Times.

When Judge W. L. Walls of Wyoming was younger—and not so wise—he wrote a poem. It was a humorous poem touching upon political conditions in the city hall at Buffalo, N. Y., where he then lived.

With his back against the locked door, he read the poem to a coterie of friends. They all laughed heartily, but none so heartily as the author himself.

Encouraged by their apparent appreciation of his wit, he took the poem to the city editor of a local paper. The editor also laughed with a heartiness which was flattering, but he handed the manuscript back.

"Why— isn't it good?" demanded the poet in surprise.

"Fine!"

"Are you going to print it?"

"I'd like to," said the editor, lowering his voice to a whisper, "but you see, Walls, I've got a wife and children."—Lippincott's.

Plaintiff further states that on or about the first day of June, 1909, he was notified by defendant that if he did not pay the said account of six dollars and seventy-five cents in ten days suit would be brought against him for said sum in the Georgetown court, Cedar township; that on the 28th day of July, 1909, defendant caused summons to be served on Grant Butcher, summoning said Butcher to appear before J. B. Hughes, the justice of the peace aforesaid, on the 10th day of August, 1909, there to answer the complaint of J. W. Miles for six dollars and seventy-five cents; that said Butcher called defendant over the telephone and asked him why he was sued, and defendant replied that it was a mistake and that the suit should have been brought against Miles (the plaintiff herein), instead of against Butcher and that he (defendant) would have that changed and would have Miles summoned instead of Butcher.

Plaintiff further states that he is a poor, laboring man, and has very little means and that because of defendant's wrongful and malicious abuse of judicial process he has been greatly annoyed and harassed and that he has been greatly injured and damaged and his credit ruined and that he has been damaged in the sum of $2,000.

SLAYS BROTHER IN DUEL

Kansans End Long Quarrel at Meeting at Night.

Paola, Kas., Aug. 2.—At the culmination of a feeling which existed between Frank and Thomas Cummins for more than a year, the latter was killed in a pistol duel with his brother Frank near here Saturday night.

The quarrel between the brothers began on the Fourth of July, 1908, when Thomas Cummins went to the home of Frank and ran him away with a shotgun. The latter remained away for several months, in order to avoid trouble.

When the two men met Saturday night, Thomas opened fire with a 44-caliber revolver. Frank, who was also armed, returned the fire. The third shot from Frank's revolver struck his brother above the eye, killing him.

The new sign will read: "The Bell Clothing Store," the Home of Hart, Schaffner & Marx, done in gold lettering. No display of merchandise will be put in the window for several days at least, except large pictures showing the new 14-story building of Hart, Schaffner & Marx in Chicago, and also the very elaborate entrance to the building, which is shown in a separate picture. Mr. Kahn, the proprietor of The Bell clothing, is proud he owns the "Sedalia Home" of Hart Schaffner & Marx, as he is fully aware that the clothing from this firm bears the stamp of quality and has no fear of contradiction when recommending it.

ALLEGED "JOKER" DISCOVERED

Tariff Bill is Now Facing Defeat in the Senate.

Washington, Aug. 2.—With the tariff conference report facing defeat in the senate on account of an alleged "joker" in the hide and leather compromise, it was decided at 1 o'clock today to reassemble the conference committee for the purpose of preparing an official explanation. The conference met at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The alleged "joker" brought out a declaration by the president today that the language of the amendment as to boots and shoes is exactly as agreed upon by him, Aldrich and Payne. He also said the talk of a "joker" in the leather schedule is absurd.

PROHIBITION AIMED AT

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE WILL MEET IN ST. LOUIS TOMORROW MORNING.

WHAT JUDGE WILLIAM H. WALLACE SAYS

The Constitutional Amendment Association to Get Busy—Prepared to Raise Fund of Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 2.—Judge William H. Wallace, who was recently elected president of the Constitutional Amendment Association, will go to St. Louis tomorrow to attend a meeting of the association's executive committee.

He says that at this meeting work will start on the petitions that are to be circulated to force the prohibition amendment to be submitted to the voters of Missouri next year through the use of the initiative.

"Some persons believe the association is made up of prohibitionists," Judge Wallace said. "In reality it is a non-partisan organization which has for its members republicans, democrats and prohibitionists. Its only purpose is to put the saloons out of the state either by a statute or by an amendment to the state constitution—and after that is done, to see that they are kept out."

Anti Saloonists Won't Aid.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 2.—Mrs. F. H. Ingalls of St. Louis secretary of the State Constitutional Amendment Association, which will seek to submit prohibition through the initiative at the election of 1910, says plans are under way to raise a campaign fund of $100,000 to fight for the amendment.

After the meetings of the "dry" forces, to be held at the Planters' hotel Tuesday, petitions will at once be circulated in eleven congressional districts of the state.

The Missouri Anti-Saloon League will not assist in the circulation of the petitions. The Rev. E. J. Moore, superintendent, said:

"The league's plans are to set to work now to elect a legislature which will submit prohibition. We are now beginning our work or organization and picking out candidates. It would be useless to carry prohibition if a legislature is unfavorable to it."

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional. Both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood elements.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

The Printers Met Sunday.

Sedalia Typographical Union No. 206 met Sunday and appropriated $10 toward the Labor Day celebration on Monday, September 6. The other business was of a routine nature.

MOTHER SLEW CHILDREN

THEN SHE COMMITTED SELF-DESTRUCTION AT THE HOME IN CHICAGO.

WANTED TO SAVE DAUGHTER FROM SHAME

Bodies of Trio Found in House Where Every Gas Jet Was Open—The Case Is a Peculiarly Sad One.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Because she preferred death to the humiliation of having her children learn of their parents' indiscretions, Mrs. Emma Michel, No. 690 Osgood street, early Sunday killed her daughter, Meta, 15 years old, and her son, Gustave, 12 years old, and committed suicide.

The human sacrifice was performed by means of illuminating gas and followed the return of the children from a moonlight picnic to which Mrs. Michel had sent them while she remained at home, writing letters to explain her act.

From the letters, which were translated from the German by the police of the Sheffield Avenue Police station, it appears that Mrs. Michel, who was a comely matron of 41, anticipated that relatives of her husband, with whom she was on bad terms, were about to cast a blight upon the life of Meta, a black-haired, blue-eyed girl who was admired for her good looks and talent in the district in which the Michels lived.

Mrs. Michel had pending a suit for a divorce against her husband and neighbors said that it was due to be heard in court today.

The police last night made ineffectual search for the woman's husband, who is a teamster and has been missing from home for three months.

The husband's actions were the principal source of the unhappiness of the couple. Mrs. Michel was known in the neighborhood of her home as a kind mother and wife and many friends went to the house in the afternoon and evening.

The woman was found dead in a sitting posture in front of a gas range, from which the gas was flowing in full force. Every gas jet in the house had been opened. BIGGEST BARN IN KANSAS Capacity 300 Cattle, 500 Tons of Hay, 10,000 Bushels of Grain.

Topeka, Aug. 2.—Fred R. Cottrell, of Irving, has just completed what is undoubtedly the largest and most unique barn in Kansas on his ranch.

It is circular in form and is 100 feet in diameter. It has a capacity of 300 head of cattle, 500 tons of hay and 10,000 bushels of grain.

Mr. Cottrell is planning a "barn warming" for August 3, when the building will be informally dedicated with a party which will be attended by nearly every one in the county.

MAXIM'S MAXIM.

Modest Claims Often Carry More Conviction Than Loud Boasts.

When Maxim, the famous inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be considerably below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach. Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

GIVEN AWAY.—Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, new revised Edition, is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. K. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Gentleman.

There are men and women who pride themselves upon their gruffness, and though they may possess virtue, their manners make them intolerable. The finest gentleman that ever breathed was the model man of Nazareth. And if Christianity has no higher recommendation, here's statement in "Gleanings of Truth," "the Christian is God Almighty's gentleman," that alone makes it an invaluable element in society.

How Women May Keep Well.

An authority upon all matters connected with physical training says that a woman who wishes to keep well and in good condition should sleep nine hours of the 24, take cold water baths, exercise for five minutes each day with light dumbbells, drink a cup of hot liquid before breakfast, spend half an hour every day in outdoor exercise, make the best of bad bargains and, above all, always keep her temper.

A Conservative.

"Your great trouble," said the sagacious person, "is that you don't apply scientific principles to agriculture." "Praps," answered Farmer Cornstossel. "What, in your opinion, cause so many crop failures?" "I dunno for sure. But I've a suspicion it's tryin' to follow the advice of everybody that comes along an' says he knows all about it."

Turpentine.

Turpentine, in India, is derived from the chir, or long-leaf pine, which very much resembles the American long-leaf pine, from which the main supply of turpentine of the world is derived and which is rapidly disappearing. This tree occurs in different parts of the Himalayas, at elevations of from 3,500 feet to 7,000 feet.

BIG MONEY IN A LOTTERY

ITALY MADE $7,227,000 LAST YEAR BY THE LICENSING OF GAMBLING.

FIGURES HAVE JUST BEEN MADE PUBLIC

Ticket May Be Bought for as Little as a Penny and Large Sums Are Frequently Won—It Is Fair and Above Board.

Rome, Aug. 2.—The importance of the weekly lottery, which the Italian government took over from the Papal and Bourbon governments, in forming budget surpluses is once more proved by the figures of the last financial year, which have just been published.

During that period the state made a gross sum of $16,671,280, and a net profit of $7,227,000, out of this cheap and very popular form of gambling, the difference being composed of some $1,500,000 in commissions and other office expenses, and the rest of prizes. The lottery is far more remunerative at Naples than anywhere else, for there the average amount spent in this sort of speculation is as much as $3.87 per head of the population, whereas in the better educated northern district of Sondrio the average is only 4 cents.

The lottery is most productive where the people are most illiterate and least inclined to invest in savings banks; for the illiterates at Naples are still nearly 55 per cent of the total population, after nearly fifty years of Italian rule there.

The lottery is one of the most generally appreciated government institutions; it is fair and above board; large sums are not infrequently won, and a ticket may be bought for as little as a penny. But its bad influence in encouraging superstition and a gambling spirit is obvious, and a Socialist deputy from the south lately expressed the hope that one day it would be abolished. In that case there would probably be a revolution at Naples.

JOKE NOT ALL ON THE COP.

Owner of Sign Loaned to College Boys Was Also a Regretter of the Event.

Stealthily the Gotham policeman stole out from behind the side door of the saloon and quickly pounced on some Columbia college boys who were carrying a long board sign that had hung over some tobaccoist's shop. The youths protested against the officer's interference, but he told them that they would find it a hard job to turn little old New York into a college town, and off to the lockup they went. College boys, sign and all.

"What's the charges?" asked the sergeant as he looked out at the aggregation of the coming great men of learning.

"Stealing a sign," answered the cop, as some of the boys humped it into the station house, where it reposed against the wall.

"We did not steal it," spoke up one of the youths, "we only borrowed it." The sergeant turned to the cop and told him to call up the owner and find out what the true state of the case was. The policeman read the sign slowly and then turned to the telephone book to look up the owner.

"Hello! Did you lose a sign?" and the answer made the policeman scratch his head.

"What did he say?" asked the waiting sergeant. The reserves were beginning to grin and the policeman looked very uncomfortable.

"It is all right," he said, scowling at the youths. "The owner says they rented the sign for the night and are to return it tomorrow morning when he is ready to do business again."

A shout went up from the youths as they were ordered out of the station, and they took up their triumphal march and sought out some other unsuspecting cop to dupe, and far down the street came back their triumphant yell.

"C-o-l-u-m-b-i-a!"
The cop laughed to himself as he started out again on his beat, and a friend at his side asked him the cause of his merriment.

"The owner of the sign was mad all the way through and wanted me to hold the sign. He had rented it all right, but he said that was the third

MADE $7,000 ON CUCUMBERS

Olathe Man Produced Three Crops in Nine Months.

Olathe Kan., Aug. 2.—An enterprising Olathe man cleaned up $7,000 during the past nine months on cucumbers. He produces them when other people don't. That explains his large profits.

Last year he conceived the idea that if he could produce cucumbers for the market during the fall, winter and early spring, he might make some money. So he built a hothouse about one hundred feet long and thirty feet wide. He heated it with steam and equipped it with trellises. He planted the seed in rich soil under the trellises and the vines soon grew up over them like grape vines. By careful attention the vines would produce almost constantly. When the life was almost out of one planting of vines he would tear them out and plant a new crop. During the season he produced three crops. The cucumber farmer was unable to supply the demand and he will extend his hothouse this year.

Myrtle and George.

"O, forgive me, Myrtle! I forgot all about this being the night your beau is due."

"Don't speak of him, Mabel. Here it is 8:15. If he doesn't think enough of me to call on time he may stay away altogether."

"Gracious! I—"

"O, I mean it. You shall stay with me all the evening, and if he comes, remember, I am not at home."

"Really?"

"Eight-thirty! The idea! I shall close the storm door and lower the blinds. I wouldn't so much as look out if he rang all night, and—"

"O, there's the bell—"

"The bell! O, it's he! Mabel, you slip out by the back way and call some other evening. O, how grand! To think it is really George. Poor fellow! Maybe he was delayed and ran all the way. I shall not even ask him why he was late."

HOW DO YOU LIKE THE SHOES

Do they suit you?

If they don't, they are the most aggravating source of annoyance that you can have—and the most needless.

The most aggravating, because you have to be on your feet every day, and mostly all day long—because your feet are sensitive and discomfort there frets your entire nervous system—because if your feet feel bad, your face will frown—because every time you pass the eye from head to foot and the eye always pauses at the extremities—if your shoes are mis-shapen, your friends will know it, and you will become conscious of it.

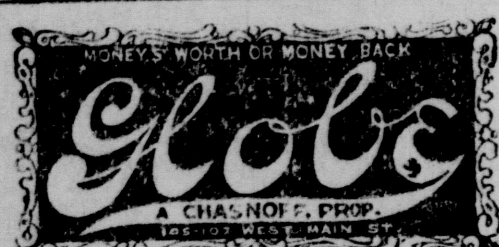

But NEEDLESS—because we are here to make your feet feel good—to make them look well.

Look at your shoes—how do they feel?

If you are dissatisfied with your shoes—if you have trouble with your feet, you are enduring a needless botheration. We can sell you a shoe that will fit your feet perfectly, and will hold its shape.

Buy Brown's 5* Shoes. They look well—they wear well—they will be a source of satisfaction to you.

Victim, During Struggle. Takes Receiver and Calls Police Before Slain—Caught Couple in Guilty Embrace.

Canton O., Aug. 2.—The culmination of an elopement from New York last March was a double murder here yesterday, in which Mrs. Mary Panilla, 18 years old, shot and killed her husband, a grocery-keeper, and slashed to death with a butcher knife Mrs. Clara Pizzana, 23 years old, an educated Italian woman.

Panilla and Mrs. Pizzana eloped from New York last March, the former leaving his wife in Deans, N. J., and the latter leaving a husband, Peter Pizzana, and a child at No. 289 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, New York.

Mrs. Panilla traced the two to this city and had them arrested. Then the difficulties, apparently were settled and all three went to live together. As Mrs. Panilla entered Mrs. Pizzana's room today she found the woman and her husband in close embrace.

Maddened by the sight, she seized a revolver which Panilla had kept for use in self-defense, and shot him twice through the head. Then she dropped the revolver and seized a butcher-knife and attacked Mrs. Pizzana. In the terrible struggle that followed Mrs. Pizzana was able to get to the telephone and hold Mrs. Panilla at bay while she called the police station.

She had just got the office when Mrs. Panilla attacked her again. All the officer heard was a scream. He learned that something unusual had happened, but he could not learn where. After the murder Mrs. Panilla rushed out into the street, her clothing covered with blood and the butcher-knife in her hand.

She asked a passerby the way to the police station. Then she noticed the blood on her clothes and went back to the room where her husband lay dead and her other victim dying, to change her dress.

Mrs. Panilla was taken by the police to the scene of the murder last night, and there she reenacted the tragedy.

"I went crazy when I saw them together," she said in the station. "She deserved what she got, for she stole my husband from me."
